Christian value of our fortnight

This week children have been learning about the Christian value of 'creativity' which is using your imagination to do something unique.

This week the children have been thinking about how people can be creative when faced with a problem. They found out about some people who, despite having physical disabilities managed to find things that they could excel at. They also considered the famous fable – the Lion and the Mouse – and considered how the Lion realised how valuable even a tiny mouse can be. Sometimes we need to change the way we think about things (or be creative) in order to find solutions to problems.
